

Primary Sense Benefits

Primary Sense is a population management, clinical decision support and data extraction tool.

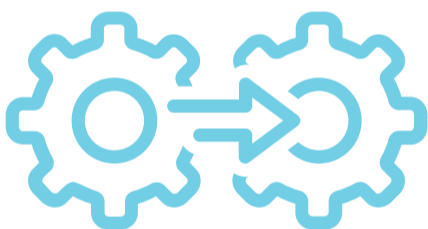

GENERAL PRACTITIONERS

In built Johns Hopkins University ACG® System - world's leading population health analytics software

Easy to use - little to no training to get started

Compatible with major practice management software products

Real time medication safety alerts, patient care prompts and notifications

Developed by GPs, for GPs and 100% cost free

PRACTICE MANAGERS

Can be quickly installed by practice IT support staff

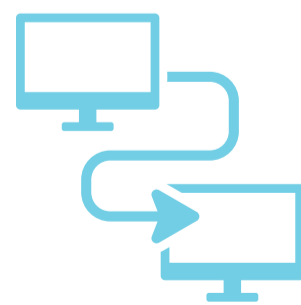

Easy onboarding process

Saves time with one click, on-demand reports

Makes it easy to meet PIP QI documentation requirements

Can be used by clinical and non-clinical staff at the same time

To find out more or get Primary Sense in your practice, visit: www.primarysense.org.au